The first round of the competition (lesson) was introduced by the organizers in the format of an online competition in order to meet better the participants and their level of training. The members of the competition’s jury will be present online at each of the lessons and give the contestants a preliminary scores. The preliminary score of the participant for the first round of the competition (lesson) is not counted in his competition score, but can be taken into account if the scores are equal between the contestants of the same age group.

 If the contestant for valid reasons (illness, study, work in the theater, time difference, etc.) can not attend the lesson live on 25.02.21 at the time indicated above, she / he can send a video of the lesson performed by her / him: 2-3 combinations at the machine, 2-3 combinations in the middle of the hall, 2-3 jumps - mandatory, 2-3 combinations on pointe shoes (optional) till 20th February 2021. Video will be sent to a Jury members.

 Due to the difficult epidemiological situation in Europe and some other countries, the closure of ballet studios and the inability for contestants to perform and show a lesson from a professional ballet studio, participation in the first round of the competition from the contestant's home is allowed. Required requirements - the contestant's number, attached to the front and back, rehearsal ballet clothing without accessories (skirts, bundles, leggings, sweatshirts, etc.)

26.02.2021, FRIDAY – online from The Hague, The Netherlands.
- 16:30 – 1st day of the online competition (The Netherlands time).
The exact time of the performance for the competitors, who would like to dance via livestream, will be announced soon after receiving all application forms.

 Due to the fact that some contestants do not have the opportunity to record a video or perform competitive dances in a professional ballet studio because of the lockdown, it is allowed to participate in the competition at home, if the size of the room corresponds to the choreography being performed. Also realizing that not every contestant has an equipped ballet studio at home with a professional ballet floor, we recommend that the contestants perform variations and dances at home on demi pointes, in soft ballet shoes (however, performance on pointe shoes is also allowed at the request of the contestant and her teacher). For the objectivity of the Jury scores, the contestants will be divided into subgroups A and B (on pointe shoes and on demi pointes) in each age group.
